5. Discussion: Beer and Wine Sales in Theatres
Juliana Rice, Town Counsel

Ms. Rice presented a draft policy of rules governing the sale of beer and wine in theatres.

Mr. Dunn stated it may be difficult to make sure customers are limited to a reasonable number of drinks. He is concerned that when large crowds come to movies, they don't stay in one place - it is not like being seated at a bar. Mrs. Mahon suggested allowing each person no more than two drinks. Mr. Byrne suggested only ticket holders be allowed to buy a drink.

Brian Rehrig, a member of the Arlington Friends of Drama, said it is important to recognize that live performances draw smaller crowds creating a more manageable situation. It would be impractical to expect a couple or group to buy their own drinks. He stated people attending a performance would only be able to have a drink before the show starts or during intermission.

Mr. Fraiman, owner of Capital Theatre, assured the Board that selling alcohol at his venue would not create a bar-like atmosphere. He stated that people looking for a drinking experience are not coming to a bar at a movie theatre.

The Board asked Ms. Rice to submit a draft policy for the sale of wine and malt beverages in theaters for their May 21st meeting.

6. Discussion: Hackney Taxi Process
